

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES

I have received and reviewed the course syllabus for ECS 306: Guidance and Discipline. I understand the course requirements and that I will be held responsible for the following:

1. Reading the textbook: Guidance of Young Children, and How To Talk So Kids Will Listen and How to Listen So Kids Will Talk.
2. Completing all assignments, evaluations, chapter summaries, reflections, assessments and forms. In class assignments should be neatly printed in blue or black ink, all other assignments should be clearly organized, typed, neat and orderly. While this is not a writing class, it is a college level course. Correct usage of grammar and complete sentences and paragraphs are assumed. If your English is not at college level you will be required to work with a tutor and have the tutor sign off on your written assignments.
3. Attending all class sessions and participating in class discussions, activities, and role-plays. If I miss more than three class meeting I may be dropped from the course. However, if you drop the class you are responsible to handle the paper work with Admissions & Records, if you don't and your name appears on my final grade sheet, you will receive an "F".
4. Spending approximately 6 hours per week out of class study time, which may include homework assignments, observations, journal reflections and reading time.
5. Academic Ethics: I understand that I am expected to share ideas, suggestions, resources and information, and often to work cooperatively with my fellow students to complete a task or project. However, my work must be in my own words, or I must cite who's work I am using. I also understand that copying, cheating and plagiarism will result in an F grade in the course. This will apply to all persons involved.
6. My grade will be based both on the assignments completed and the quality of writing and understanding demonstrated in those assignments and in class discussions.
7. Professional Ethics: Comments, ideas, reflections, observations, etc., are NOT to be discussed outside of class. Confidentiality regarding ALL discussions every student in class, their comments and individuals discussed in their observations.

Failure to comply with any of the above will negatively affect my final grade for the course.
